Independent Living II

Our new Independent Living II residence offers 54 affordable one-bedroom apartments. Nestled on the McGregor campus among mature trees, gardens and walking paths, we offer a maintenance-free lifestyle committed to your personal well-being. Each suite offers refrigerator, stove, microwave and utilities (excludes phone, internet and cable), building and grounds maintenance and surface parking is available.

This housing is subsidized through the HUD 202 program. Rent is determined by using 30% of your income. The security deposit and rent will be established once your income is calculated and your application is approved.
